

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990: SECTIONS 191 and 192 (as amended by section 10 of the Planning and Compensation Act 1991)

THE TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING (DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE) (ENGLAND) ORDER 2015: ARTICLE 39

CERTIFICATE OF LAWFULNESS FOR A PROPOSED USE OR DEVELOPMENT

To: Absolute Architecture
Commercial House
53B Kingsbridge Road
Newbury
RG14 6DY

Application No: 231006
Application type: Certificate of Lawfulness -
Proposed Use or Development

Applicant: Mr & Mrs Jamie & Claire Riches

The Reading Borough Council hereby certify that on 15/09/2023 the use/operations/matter described in the First Schedule to this certificate in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule to this certificate, and edged black on the attached plan would have been lawful within the meaning of Section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), for the following reason(s):

First Schedule: Rear Extension and dormer

Second Schedule: 32 Kidmore Road, Caversham, Reading, RG4 7LU

Date: 15 September 2023

SDV

Assistant Director of Planning, Transport and Public Protection Services

CONDITIONS & REASONS

1. Evidence has been provided to demonstrate that a Certificate of Lawfulness should be granted for the proposed single storey rear extension.

The proposal has been assessed against the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) and Classes A, B, & C Part 1, & Class A Part 14 of Schedule 2 of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015. It can be confirmed that the proposed operation would be lawful for planning purposes on the basis of the drawings;

Dwg No: 535 040 Pro. Block Plan
As received 20th of July 2023

Dwg No: 535 050 Pro. Ground Floor Plan
Dwg No: 535 051 Pro. First Floor Plan
Dwg No: 535 052 Pro. Second Floor Plan
Dwg No: 535 053 Pro. Roof Plan
Dwg No: 535 060 Pro. Elevations
As received 15^h of September 2023

The materials to be used in the construction of the external surfaces of the development have been confirmed shall match those used on the existing building.

Therefore the Local Planning Authority can issue the applicant with a Certificate of Lawfulness for the proposed development.

INFORMATIVES

1. Please note that the plans make reference to changes to chimney breasts within the building but retaining the chimney stacks above the house and that these changes are outside the scope of this application and have not been assessed. Your attention is drawn to the requirement for submission of a Building Regulations application for the proposed development. Please contact Building Control on 0118 937 2449 for advice. It will be necessary to secure the chimney stack properly to avoid collapse which could lead to damage to life or property.

2. Complaints are commonly received about noise and dust caused by construction and demolition works, particularly working outside reasonable hours and smoke from bonfires associated with the burning of waste on site. The developer is reminded that construction and demolition associated with the approved development will be subject to environmental health law.

3. During the course of construction, the developer should take care to ensure that no part of this development (foundations, eaves, guttering, etc.) would encroach on, under or across the boundary line with the adjoining property, as the requisite Notice has not been served on the owner of that property. This permission does not confer any right of access onto land that is not

Notes

1. This certificate is issued solely for the purpose of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
2. It certifies that the use/operations/matter specified in the First Schedule taking place on the land described in the Second Schedule would have been lawful, on the specified date and, thus, would not have been liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.
3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the use/operations/matter described in the First Schedule and to the land specified in the Second Schedule and identified on the attached plan. Any use/operations/matter which is/are materially different from that/those described or which relate/s to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.
4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
5. If you are aggrieved by the decision of the Council, you may appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 195 of the Town and Country planning Act 1990.

6. Impact on trees: Any works to trees subject to a Tree Preservation Order or protected due to their location within a Conservation Area will require submission of a tree works application or Section 211 Notice respectively. This certificate does not override this requirement and unauthorised tree works undertaken to implement permitted development may be subject to formal legal action.
