APPLICATION FOR FULL PLANNING PERMISSION

To: Mr David Fletcher
3 Grayling Lane
Weston
Newbury
RG20 8AZ

Application No: 190837
Application type: Variation of Condition

Applicant: Miss Jade Taylor

READING BOROUGH COUNCIL as Local Planning Authority REFUSE planning permission for the following development.

Proposal: Development of conversion of existing single dwelling house to two dwelling houses with two storey extensions to rear without complying with Condition 4 (Parking Permits) of planning permission 090981, dated 18/12/2009.

At: 14 South Street Reading RG4 8HY

For the attached reasons

PLEASE READ THE NOTES ISSUED WITH THIS DECISION NOTICE

Application At: 14 South Street Reading RG4 8HY

Application No: 190837

Application type: Variation of Condition

REASONS FOR REFUSAL

1. The proposed removal of condition 4 of planning permission 090981 does not comply with the Council's Parking Policy to regulate parking permits issued to dwellings converted to multiple units. This will increase competition for on-street parking bays in an area which is oversubscribed. This would be detrimental to road safety and the flow of traffic, and in conflict with Core Strategy Policy CS24 and the Revised Parking Standards and Design Supplementary Planning Guidance 2011.

INFORMATIVES

1. The decision to refuse the removal of condition 4 follows the positive and proactive consideration of the application, including outlining the issues of concern with the agent of the applicant prior to a decision being issued.

2. This application has been considered and assessed on the basis of the following submitted information:

NOTES

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

If you are aggrieved by the decision of the Council to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, if you want to appeal against the Council's decision on the application you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.

If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and you want to appeal against the Council's decision on your application, you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months (or 12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal) of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.

If the above circumstances do not apply, any appeal must be made within the following time limits.

If this is a householder application and you want to appeal against the Council's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice. If this is an advertisement application and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of this notice. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of application (which is not a householder or advertisement application, or an application for a Certificate of Lawfulness) then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order. In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the Local Planning Authority based their decision on a direction given by him.

Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN, tel. 0303 444 5000, or online at <https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk/>

Purchase Notices

If either the Local Planning Authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
