Section 10 of the Planning and Compensation Act 1991)

THE TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING
(DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE) (ENGLAND) ORDER 2015
: ARTICLE 39

To: Boyes Turner LLP
Abbots House
Abbey Street
Reading
Berkshire
RG1 3BD

Application No: 191668
Application type: Certificate of Lawfulness -
Existing Use or Development

CERTIFICATE OF LAWFUL USE OR DEVELOPMENT (EXISTING) REFUSAL NOTICE

Applicant: Mr Daniel Causer

The Reading Borough Council hereby notify you that your application received on 18 October 2019 for a Certificate of Lawful Use or Development (within the meaning of Section 191 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990) for the use/operations/matter described in the First Schedule in respect of land specified in the Second Schedule is REFUSED for the reasons below:

1. An enforcement notice has previously been served against the use of the application building as two flats. As such, Reading Borough Council may still pursue enforcement action against the use of the property as two flats and the existing use being applied for is in contravention of the enforcement notice that was served against the property. Therefore the use cannot be considered lawful as per the provisions of Section 191 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (2) (a) & (b).

Notes

If you are aggrieved by the decision of the Council, you may appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 195 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>.

If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.
