To: ARD Architect
Prospect Cottage
26 Windmill Road
Mortimer
RG7 3RN

Application No: 190002
Application type: Certificate of Lawfulness -
Proposed Use or Development

Applicant: Mr Neville Williams

The Reading Borough Council hereby certify that on 28/01/2019 the use/operations/matter described in the First Schedule to this certificate in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule to this certificate, and edged black on the attached plan would have been lawful within the meaning of Section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), for the following reason(s):

First Schedule: Single storey rear extension

Second Schedule: 32 Ashburton Road Reading RG2 7PE

Date: 6 March 2019

CONDITIONS & REASONS

1. The proposal has been assessed against the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) and Class A, Part 1 of Schedule 2 of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015. It can be confirmed that the proposed operation would be lawful for planning purposes on the basis of the drawings received on 1st January 2019:

Drawing No 18/37/02 - Proposed Plans

Drawing No 18/37/01 - Existing Plans

The materials to be used in the construction of the external surfaces of the development have been confirmed as matching those used on the existing building.

Therefore the Local Planning Authority can issue the applicant with a Certificate of Lawfulness for the proposed development.

INFORMATIVES

1. Your attention is drawn to the requirement for submission of a Building Regulations application for the proposed development. Please contact Building Control on 0118 937 2449 for advice.

2. Complaints are commonly received about noise and dust caused by construction and demolition works, particularly working outside reasonable hours and smoke from bonfires associated with the burning of waste on site. The developer is reminded that construction and demolition associated with the approved development will be subject to environmental health law.

Notes

1. This certificate is issued solely for the purpose of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
2. It certifies that the use/operations/matter specified in the First Schedule taking place on the land described in the Second Schedule would have been lawful, on the specified date and, thus, would not have been liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.
3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the use/operations/matter described in the First Schedule and to the land specified in the Second Schedule and identified on the attached plan. Any use/operations/matter which is/are materially different from that/those described or which relate/s to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.
4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
5. If you are aggrieved by the decision of the Council, you may appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 195 of the Town and Country planning Act 1990.
