Dear Mr Sewell

Following your recent valued enquiry, I have pleasure in submitting our quotation to carefully install the products detailed within, offered along with our comprehensive Abbey Guarantee.

Our products are predominantly UK manufactured and meet with the highest standards for Quality, security and insulation, whilst using profiles sympathetic to traditional windows & doors.

Now in our 33rd Year of trading, Abbey prides itself in a quality service (both during and after sales) Quality Control Manager and regular staff training ensure we achieve consistently high standards. This is whilst always striving to find further improvements in delivering our customers expectations. Our responsibility to you and the environment extends also from energy efficient products to the recycling of many waste materials.

I trust the enclosed meets with your approval and as such hope that we can be of assistance to you. This Quotation is open to acceptance for 1 Month. Should you wish to discuss or amend any aspect, options or visit and see products within our Sales Centre, please do not hesitate in contacting me.

Yours sincerely

Chris Coxhead

Privacy Statement:

Our commitment to your privacy

We have recently updated our privacy policy to explain how we collect, store and handle your personal data.

Why we collect your data

The data we hold confidentially about you enables us to provide you with specific product and pricing advice. It is further collected to improve our service and the customer experience on and offline.

Post order collection of data is paramount to the supply of our after sales service, it is done so to protect the consumer after they have placed an order with us.

We also use your contact information pre and post contract to keep you up to date with information such as promotions and up and coming events, as well as other services that we offer from time to time.

How we collect your data

We do this in a number of ways. For example, when you share your information with us if you become a client, or when you visit our showroom, or when you visit our websites or social media pages to create an online quotation, or if you download or read an article or page, or sign up to receive our news.

For your piece of mind, we treat your personal information with the utmost care and take appropriate steps to protect it.

When we'll share your data

We won't share your information for marketing purposes with other companies. We share your data with third parties in order to provide and improve our service to you and everyone. This can be from the enquiry stage through to warranties or guarantees that we have contractually committed to. This may include but not exclusive to: Consumer Protection Association, Fensa, Building Control, Planning Control, Thames Water and Specific and specialised Subcontractors for example: Architects, Surveyors/Structural Engineers, Electricians, Design Consultants etc. And where applicable for warranty or guarantee works with the relevant manufacturer, and any insurance companies and banking establishments.

We do not share data, unless it is required to do so, to fulfil our obligations to you.

We will not share the nature of your contact with us, any enquiry or order placed with us, unless you specifically consent to this in writing.

Your rights

You have the right to see the data that we hold about you and to update your information. We will always be happy to help with any queries you have. When we send you information by email, you will always have the option to unsubscribe, by reply or by emailing info@abbeywindows.co.uk.
