Application No: 180328
Application type: Householder

Applicant: Mr Azat Agayev

READING BOROUGH COUNCIL as Local Planning Authority REFUSE planning permission for the following development.

Proposal: Conversion of garage to habitable room and associated landscaping alterations

At: 48 Regis Park Road Reading RG6 7AD

For the attached reasons

PLEASE READ THE NOTES ISSUED WITH THIS DECISION NOTICE

Date: 25 May 2018

Application At: 48 Regis Park Road Reading RG6 7AD

Application No: 180328

Application type: Householder

REASONS FOR REFUSAL

1. The proposed conversion of the garage would be contrary to Condition 28 of the original planning permission for the development. Granting permission would set an unwanted precedent within the Regis Park Road development, leading to increased competition for the limited available on-street parking, adversely affecting road safety and the flow of traffic. As such, the proposal is contrary to Policy DM12 of the Sites and Detailed Policies Document and the Council's Revised Parking Standards and Design SPD.
2. The proposal would detract from the uniform nature of the development, to the detriment of the street scene. As such, the proposal is contrary to Policy CS7 of the Core Strategy and Policy DM9 of the Sites and Detailed Policies Document.

INFORMATIVES

1. The refusal relates only to the following plans and drawings as received by the local planning authority:
Drawing No: 48/RPR/Block - Block Plan (received 20/02/18)
Drawing No: 48/RPR/002 - Existing and Proposed Front Elevations (received 20/02/18)
Drawing No: 48/RPR/001A - Existing and Proposed Site Plans (received 17/04/18)
2. The local planning authority has worked positively and proactively with the applicant to see if relevant concerns could be resolved to allow permission to be granted. However, that has not been possible within the prescribed target or agreed extended timescale and therefore the decision to refuse planning permission has been taken.

NOTES

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

If you are aggrieved by the decision of the Council to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, if you want to appeal against the Council's decision on the application you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.

If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and you want to appeal against the Council's decision on your application, you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months (or 12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal) of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.

If the above circumstances do not apply, any appeal must be made within the following time limits.

If this is a householder application and you want to appeal against the Council's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice. If this is an advertisement application and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of this notice. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision for any other type of application (which is not a householder or advertisement application, or an application for a Certificate of Lawfulness) then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order. In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the Local Planning Authority based their decision on a direction given by him.

Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN, tel. 0303 444 5000, or online at www.planningportal.gov.uk/pcs.

Purchase Notices

If either the Local Planning Authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
