

Galliford Try propose to utilise the existing cross-over at the end of Tarlton Court, as per above photo. This cross-over comprises dropped kerbs with concrete hardstanding. We understand this cross-over was formed approximately seven years ago for the construction on the previous school extension.

