

Clients access the premises via the front entrance and are restricted to the hallway, studio and client bathroom only. All other areas are private residential areas and are not used for tattooing activities.